

HRG Announces New Team Member

HRG Expands Southeast Presence with Addition of Mark Walters in Florida Office

Carrollton, GA – Hagen Realty Group announces the recent addition auction industry veteran Mark Walters to its ranks. Mark will be overseeing HRG’s branch office in Port St. Lucie, Florida and will continue to build a strong market presence in the Florida market for firm. Mark brings 25 years of both local and national experience to HRG. He has sold the largest land auctions to date in southeast Florida. He is experienced in commercial, industrial, residential, and multi-family properties. “My association with Hagen Realty Group provides unique growth opportunities in commercial real estate auctions. We are excited about aggressive business development in Florida. I look forward to being a part of Hagen Realty Group to meet the industry challenges and further the company’s success.”, said Mark.

“We are excited to have Mark as an integral part of our team. Our clients will benefit from his experience. Mark is a natural fit with our firm since he is well-know within the auction industry for integrity and professionalism”, said Kim Hagen, CAI, AARE, President and CEO of HRG. Hagen believes there is still a lot of distress in the commercial real estate market and HRG can offer professional marketing services to assist in the disposition of such assets. “We have a tremendous history of successfully recouping funds for lenders, servicers, trustees and courts. Mark’s addition to our firm will allow us to continue that quality service”, continued Hagen.

HRG plans to be poised for the demands of its clients as well as the market. The firm has opportunities for additional associates and offices throughout the nation.

HRG is a national asset disposition firm which offers accelerated marketing through accelerated listings, public outcry auctions, sealed bid auctions, and Internet auctions to maximize dollar value for clients. HRG can be reached at (800) 942-6475 or on the web at www.hrgsold.com.